

Maria Huber is a university assistant (Prae Doc) in Professor Michael Waibel's team at the Department of International Law at the University of Vienna. She studied law at the University of Vienna and spent an Erasmus semester in Stockholm at Stockholm University.

She gained experience as a research assistant for international law under Assoc. Prof. Dr. MMag. Ralph Janik, LL.M. at Sigmund Freud Private University Vienna as well as through internships at law firms and at the Permanent Mission of Austria to the United Nations in New York.

During her studies, she also participated in the 2023 Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court in Washington.