

Hanspeter Neuhold, born on 29 January 1942;
Doctor of Law, University of Vienna (1965); Assistant (1966), venia legendi (Dozent) (1975), Associate Professor (1980), Professor (1990), Professor emeritus (2010) of International Law and International Relations, University of Vienna Law School;
Diplômé de l'Institut des hautes études internationales, Université de Paris (1967);
Office of the Legal Adviser, Austrian Ministry for Foreign Affairs (1969/1970); member of Austrian delegations to international conferences;
Visiting Professor, Carleton University, Ottawa (1978), Stanford University (1988), Leiden University (2001), College of Europe (2006-2015);
Director, Austrian Institute for International Affairs (1988-1996);
Academic Director, Master of the Advanced International Studies Programme, University of Vienna and Diplomatic Academy, Vienna (since 1996).